

The Public Interest Law Association (PILA) and the International Law Society (ILS), in collaboration with the Nevada Desert Experience (NDE) and the American Civil Liberties Union of Nevada (ACLU)

presents

The Legal and Ethical Implications of Unmanned Weapons Systems

Monday, September 13, 2010

7:00-9:00 p.m.

Thomas & Mack Moot Court
UNLV Boyd School of Law

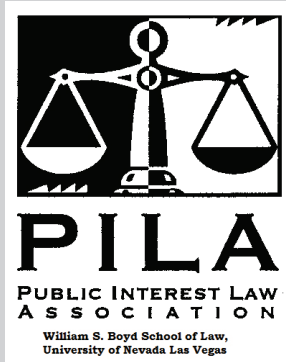

Special Guest Speakers

- Ramsey Clark, Former U.S. Attorney General
- Bill Quigley, Legal Director for the Center of Constitutional Rights
- Ann Wright, Former U.S. Colonel and retired U.S. State Department Official
- Kathy Kelly, Co-founder of Voices in the Wilderness

Our invitation to Creech Air Force Base to join us for the program was respectfully declined.

Afghan villagers stand on the debris of one of the houses which was allegedly bombed by a NATO air strike on Jabar village in the Nijrab district of Kapisa province, north of Kabul, Afghanistan Monday, March 5, 2007

Special Thanks to the Potter Law Offices for their monetary contribution to this event.