

Fun places to eat and socialize

These places and their descriptions have been provided by current and former Boyd Law students.

Near campus

- Yardhouse, Americana
- Big Chicken, Shaquille O'Neal's personal chicken joint
- Sakana Sushi, inexpensive and good variety of sushi
- The Garage, gay bar
- Mint, Indian bistro
- Lotus of Siam, award-winning Thai cuisine
- Tacos and Beer, casual/hip taqueria with amazing tacos
- Naked City Pizza, hole-in-the-wall, fantastic pizzas
- Double Down Saloon, punk rock bar
- Bahama Breeze, laid back, tropical vibe; great drinks/fresh seafood
- Firefly, fun vibe and good Spanish food/great sangria and tapas
- Pancho's Vegan Tacos, hole-in-the wall vegan taco joint

Arts District

- Tacos Huevos, great, modern taqueria with a nice outdoor space
- Bastille on 3rd, low-key, cheap bar
- Cornish Pasty Co., handheld pockets of goodness

Downtown

- Downtown Cocktail Room, hip/cool bar
- Capitol Grille, fine oaken paneling and leather-bound books, also steaks
- Evil Pie, casual dining with amazing pizza
- Vegeneration, vegan street food, including vegan meat, cheese, and ice cream

Green Valley

- Me Gusta Tacos, quick, casual taqueria
- Lucille's, down-home BBQ
- Pizza Rock, pizza with rock music
- Baby Stacks Cafe, Filipino-infused fusion breakfast with pancakes galore
- Truffles 'n Bacon Cafe, honestly, what do you want me to write about this one?
- Prosecco, homemade pasta...and maybe some prosecco
- Borracha Mexican Cantina, "tequila for the soul, tacos for the heart"
- Mothership Coffee Roasters, hip/trendy coffee joint with delicious brews
Henderson
- Kitchen Table, casual, sit-down dining with yummy food
- Bad Beat, local brewery with Thursday night trivia
- Black Mountain Grill, intimate American dining with fireside board games

- Bad Owl, Harry Potter coffee shop; decent place to study
- Shakespeare's Grill and Pub, the best fried food this side of Brexit
- Thailicious, vegan Thai

Southeast

- Taco y Taco, casual, cafeteria-style ordering with amazing food
- Brew Tea, best tea shop in Las Vegas
- Poke Poku, super casual, low-key, and inexpensive poke joint
- The Hostile Grape, buffet of wine concoctions with live music at the M Resort

Southwest

- The Black Sheep, American-Vietnamese
- Bad Owl, like the one in Henderson, but on the Southwest side
- Mi Casa, Mexican restaurant in the Silverton Hotel/Casino
- BF Sushi, all-you-can-eat sushi and more
- Zen Curry House Express, family-run Thai
- Born and Raised, sports bar for the Vegas and non-Vegas natives alike

Summerlin, including Summerlin South

- Hearthstone, rustic
- Public School 702, gastropub
- Cafe Lola, cute, pink-everything coffee shop
- Skinny Fats, healthy and/or delicious options
- Leon Cafe, adorable coffee shop in Tivoli Village

The Strip, including the South Strip

- Nine Fine Irishmen, exactly what you'd expect from the name
- Tacos and Tequila, also exactly what you'd expect from the name
- Brio, Tuscan dining at Town Square
- Carnegie Deli, New York style lunch dining in Las Vegas
- Momofuku, Japanese-inspired fusion at the Cosmopolitan
- Cleopatra's Barge, Caesar Palace's pride, also the highest-grossing restaurant in the world
- Bellagio Patisserie, home of the world's largest chocolate fountain
- Lazy Dog, American (New) comfort food and bring your pup

Westside

- Gäbi Coffee, hip, cool coffee shop with a little greenhouse
- Hong Kong Garden, dim sum joint in Chinatown
- Coffee Pub, great for breakfast, brunch, lunch, or obviously coffee
- KoMex Fusion Express, Asian-fusion: tacos, burritos & other dishes made with Korean & Mexican ingredients