ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

UNLV William S. Boyd School of Law, Las Vegas, NV July 2025 – Present

Associate Professor of Law

Course Package: Civil Procedure, International Law, Employment Discrimination Law

American University Washington College of Law, Washington, D.C. July 2022 – June 2025

Practitioner-in-Residence

Acting Director

Fall 2023

Taught and supervised students in the International Human Rights Law Clinic (IHRLC), an in-house clinic that provides students the opportunity to represent individuals alleging violations of human right norms before international human rights bodies and domestic courts and administrative agencies. The IHRLC docket included representation of non-governmental organizational clients in policy advocacy projects addressing transnational and international issues. Specific examples of the opportunities created for IHRLC students included: litigating before the United Nations Working Group on Arbitrary Detention; litigating before the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights (IACHR); representing asylum seekers in immigration court and administrative proceedings; and, collaborating with grassroots movements working to abolish the death penalty in Ohio in connection with individual-client advocacy before the IACHR. As Acting Director during the Fall 2023 semester, responsibilities included case and project selection and refining the seminar curriculum to complement the AY 2023-2024 docket.

Taught course on International Human Rights Law Courts & Monitoring Bodies. Served as Chair of the Clinical Program's Language Access Committee, focusing on improving language access for clients with limited English proficiency. Served as faculty mentor for Public Interest/Public Service (PIPS) Scholars and on the faculty Public Interest Committee. Served as Co-Chair of the national Bringing Human Rights Home Network Inter-American Working Group.
