From 2009-2017, Mr. Bharara oversaw the investigation and litigation of all criminal and civil cases brought on behalf of the United States in the Southern District of New York. He supervised an office of more than 200 Assistant U.S. Attorneys, who handled cases involving terrorism, narcotics and arms trafficking, financial and healthcare fraud, cybercrime, public corruption, gang violence, organized crime, and organized violence. Under Mr. Bharara's leadership, the office also brought a series of significant and high profile public corruption cases.

During his tenure as U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York, Preet Bharara earned a reputation as one of "the nation's most aggressive and outspoken prosecutors," according to The New York Times.

Prior to becoming a U.S. Attorney, Mr. Bharara served as Chief Counsel and Staff Director of the U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee's Subcommittee on Administrative Oversight and the Courts. In that role, he helped lead the Senate Judiciary Committee investigation of the firing of U.S. Attorneys. From 2000 to 2005, Mr. Bharara served as an Assistant U.S. Attorney in the Southern District of New York, where he prosecuted a wide range of cases involving organized crime, racketeering, securities fraud, money laundering, narcotics trafficking, and other crimes.

This event is sponsored by MGM Resorts International and William Hill.
