Professor Cooper is William S. Boyd Professor of Law and Director of the Program on Race, Gender & Policing at the William S. Boyd School of Law of University of Nevada, Las Vegas. He is a productive scholar known for work on policing and the intersectionality of identities. His publications include co-editing or co-authoring the books, FIGHT THE POWER!: LAW AND POLICY THROUGH HIP-HOP SONGS (Cambridge University Press, 2022); and MASCULINITIES AND THE LAW: A MULTIDIMENSIONAL APPROACH (NYU Press 2012). His influential articles include Against Bipolar Masculinity: Intersectionality, Identity Performance, Assimilation, and Hierarchy and “Who’s the Man?”: Masculinities Studies, Terry Stops, and Police Training, and his next article will be Dicta, Pretext, and Excessive Force: Toward Criminal Procedure Futurism, 112 CAL. L. REV. (forthcoming 2024). Professor Cooper’s service to his law schools has included chairing Tenure, Appointments, Teaching, and Scholarship committees. Under his direction, the Program on Race, Gender & Policing will host the conference, Black Legal Futurism: When We Center African-American Interests in April 2024. Professor Cooper has been a leader nationally as well, having Co-Chaired a half-dozen national conferences. His focus has been on faculty development; he co-founded the SALT-LatCrit Junior Faculty Development Workshop and John Mercer Langston Black Male Law Faculty Writing Workshop.

Publications:

Books:

- GENDER AND LAW: THEORY, DOCTRINE, COMMENTARY (9th ed., 2023) (with Katherine Bartlett, Deborah Rhode (posthumous), Joanna Grossman & Deborah Brake).
- FIGHT THE POWER!: LAW AND POLICY THROUGH HIP-hOP Songs (Gregory Parks & Frank Rudy Cooper eds.) (CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS, 2022) (collecting essays by authors such as Paul Butler, Roger Fairfax, and Deborah Archer analyzing important hip-hop songs).
- DIS/ABILITY IN MEDIA, LAW & HISTORY: INTERSECTIONAL, EMBODIED AND SOCIALLY CONSTRUCTED? (Micky Lee, Frank Rudy Cooper & Pat Reeve eds.) (ROUTLEDGE PRESS, 2022) (collecting essays applying intersectional lenses to dis/abilities issues).
- MASCULINITIES AND THE LAW: A MULTIDIMENSIONAL APPROACH (Frank Rudy Cooper & Ann C. McGinley eds., 2012) (NEW YORK UNIVERSITY PRESS) (collecting essays promoting synthesizing critical race theory's multidimensionality theory with a feminist masculinities studies approach and applying it to law).

Chapters:

- Introduction: Dis/abilities at the Intersections, in DIS/ABILITY IN MEDIA, LAW & HISTORY: INTERSECTIONAL, EMBODIED AND SOCIALLY CONSTRUCTED? (Micky Lee, Frank Rudy Cooper & Pat Reeve eds.) (ROUTLEDGE PRESS, 2022) (with Micky Lee & Pat Reeve) (arguing for new perspectives on dis/abilities).
- Introduction: Still Fighting the Power, in FIGHT THE POWER!: LAW AND POLICY THROUGH HIP-HOP SONGS (Gregory S. Parks & Frank Rudy Cooper eds., Cambridge University Press, 2022) (with Gregory S. Parks) (discussing development of hip-hop music and its implications for civil rights, introducing chapters).

- Obama's "Unisex" Campaign: Masculinities, Race, and Law, in RACE AND THE OBAMA PHENOMENON: THE VISION OF A MORE PERFECT MULTIRACIAL UNION (G. Reginald Daniel & Hettie V. Williams eds., 2014) (University Press of Mississippi) (applying critical race theory and masculinities studies to argue Obama ran a "unisex" campaign).
- Towards Multidimensional Masculinities Theory: Policing Henry Louis Gates, in EXPLORING MASCULINITIES (Martha A. Fineman & Michael Thomson eds., 2013) (arguing analysis of the controversial arrest of Henry Louis Gates suggests masculinities theorists should incorporate critical race theory's multidimensionality theory).
- Introduction: Masculinities, Multidimensionality, and Law: Why They Need One Another, in MASCULINITIES AND THE LAW: A MULTIDIMENSIONAL APPROACH (Frank Rudy Cooper & Ann C. McGinley eds., 2012) (New York University Press) (with Ann C. McGinley).
- The King Stay the King: Multidimensional Masculinities and Capitalism in The Wire, in MASCULINITIES AND THE LAW: A MULTIDIMENSIONAL APPROACH (Frank Rudy Cooper & Ann C. McGinley eds., 2012) (New York University Press) (arguing analysis of HBO police drama The Wire shows need for critiquing capitalism in multidimensional masculinities approach).
- Our First Unisex President?: Obama, Critical Race Theory, and Masculinities Studies, in THE OBAMA EFFECT: MULTIDISCIPLINARY RENDERINGS OF THE 2008 CAMPAIGN (Heather E. Harris et al. eds., 2010) (State University of New York Press) (arguing Obama did not run a "feminine" campaign, but a "unisex" one).
- The "Seesaw Effect" From Racial Profiling to Depolicing: Toward a Critical Cultural Theory, in THE NEW CIVIL RIGHTS RESEARCH: A CONSTITUTIVE APPROACH (Benjamin Fleury Steiner & Laura Beth Nielsen eds., 2006) (tracing Terry's seesaw effect from racial profiling to depolicing in New York City and identifying a critical cultural theory methodology).
- Where the Rubber Meets the Road: The CRA's Impact on Distressed Communities, in PUBLIC POLICIES FOR DISTRESSED COMMUNITIES (F. Stevens Redburn & Terry Buss eds., 2002) (with Clarence A. Cooper) (applying neoclassical economic and institutional racism perspectives to bank redlining of racial minorities and calling for "equality incentive" approach).

Articles:

- Dicta, Pretext, and Excessive Force: Toward Criminal Procedure Futurism, 112 CAL. L. REV. (forthcoming 2024) (arguing for criminal procedure futurism that would delegitimize present doctrine through revealing shaky doctrinal foundations and prepare for a second criminal procedure revolution through progressive pedagogy).

- Intersectionality, Police Excessive Force, and Class, 89 GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY LAW REVIEW 1452 (2021) (proposing an intersectionality theory approach that emphasizes the class structure to reveal excessive force doctrine as a means of boundary management).
- Race and Gender and Policing, 21 NEVADA LAW JOURNAL 885 (2021) (with Stewart Chang and Addie C. Rolnick) (introducing symposium volume by critically reviewing recent killings of blacks by police and civilians).
- Cop Fragility and Blue Lives Matter, 2020 U. ILLINOIS L. REV. 621 (applying D'Angelo's white fragility thesis to reveal police oversensitivity to criticism through analysis of Blue Lives Matter movement).
- Intersectional Cohorts, Dis/ability, and Class Actions, 47 FORDHAM URB. L.J. 293-341 (2020) (arguing "intersectional cohort" of poor, inner-city black and Latinx students deserves class certification under disability law) (with Ann C. McGinley).
- A Genealogy of Programmatic Stop and Frisk: The Discourse-to-Practice Circuit, 73 U. MIAMI L. REV. 1 (2018) (lead article) (reviewing historical development of elements of programmatic stop and frisk and its use as social control of men of color; creating methodology for analyzing relationship between political culture and policing).
- Always-Already Suspect: Revising Vulnerability Theory, 93 NORTH CAROLINA L. REV. 1339 (2015) (constructively critiquing Martha Fineman's call for a post-identity vulnerability theory in light of ongoing racial profiling).
- From Lonesome Cowboys to Geek Masculinities: A Study of Documentary Films on the Financial Crisis, 6 INTERACTIONS: STUDIES IN COMMUNICATIONS AND CULTURE 287 (2015) (with Monika Raesch & Micky Lee) (showing how documentary films on the financial markets promote certain masculinities).
- We are Always Already Imprisoned: Hyper-Incarceration and Black Male Identity Performance, 93 B.U. L. REV. 1185 (2013) (applying identity performance theory to hyper-incarceration's impact on black men as a critique of Hanna Rosin's END OF MEN thesis).
- How Masculinities Distribute Power: The Influence of Ann Scales, 91 DENV. U. L. REV. 187 (2013) (with Ann C. McGinley) (considering sexual assaults by high school athletes and George Zimmerman's acquittal for killing Trayvon Martin).
- Intentional Teaching, Intentional Scholarship: Applying Backward Design Principles in a Faculty Writing Group, 39 INNOVATIVE EDUCATION 217 (2013) (with Kathryn Linder, Elizabeth M. McKenzie, Monika Raesch & Patricia A. Reeve) (applying backward design principles from field of teaching pedagogy to scholarly production).

- Identities Cubed: Perspectives on Multidimensional Masculinities Theory, 13 NEVADA L.J. 326 (2013) (with Ann C. McGinley) (explicating multidimensional masculinities theory as Introduction to symposium on masculinities).
- Post-racialism and Searches Incident to Arrest, 44 ARIZONA ST. L.J. 113 (2012) (critiquing post-racialism as inspiring half-remedies, as exemplified by recent cases only partially limiting racial profiling).
- Hyper-incarceration as a Multidimensional Attack: Responding to Angela Harris Through The Wire, 37 WASHINGTON U. J. L. & POL'Y 67 (2011) (arguing "mass incarceration" should be understood as "hyper-incarceration" because it is targeted based on multiple dimensions of identities).
- Masculinities, Post-racialism, and the Gates Controversy: The False Equivalence Between Officer and Civilian, 11 NEVADA L.J. 1 (2010) (Lead Article) (applying masculinities studies and critique of post-racialism to controversial arrest of scholar Henry Louis Gates).
 - Reprinted in CYNTHIA LEE & ANGELA P. HARRIS, CRIMINAL LAW: CASES AND MATERIALS 88-95 (4th Ed. 2019).
- "Who's the Man?": Masculinities Studies, Terry Stops, and Police Training, 18 COLUMBIA J. GENDER & L. 671 (2009) (summarizing masculinities studies, showing its applicability to Terry stops and frisks, and proposing reforming police training).
- Race and Essentialism in Gloria Steinem, 11 BERKELEY J. AFR.-AM. L. & POL'Y (2009) (solicited essay as part of 20th anniversary Critical Race Theory Workshop; applying masculinities studies to 2008 Presidential campaign).
- Our First Unisex President?: Black Masculinity and Obama's Feminine Side, 86 DENV. U. L. REV. 633 (2009) (applying identity performance theory, critical race theory, and masculinities studies to media discourse on Obama's femininity).
- Surveillance and Identity Performance: Some Thoughts Inspired by Martin Luther King, 32 N.Y.U. REV. L. & SOC. CHANGE 517 (2008) (suggesting new framework for Fourth Amendment's application to surveillance based on identity performance theory).
- The Spirit of 1968: Toward Abolishing Terry Doctrine, 31 N.Y.U. REV. L. & SOC. CHANGE 539 (2007) (encouraging Left scholars to seek abolition of Terry doctrine).
- Against Bipolar Black Masculinity: Intersectionality, Assimilation, Identity Performance, and Hierarchy 39 U.C-DAVIS L. REV. 853 (2006) (critically reviewing intersectionality theory, identity performance theory, and representations of black men).
- Cultural Context Matters: Terry's "Seesaw Effect", 56 OKLA. L. REV. 833 (2003) (arguing cultural context matters in the decisions to over- or under-utilize Terry v. Ohio stop and frisk powers).
 - Reprinted in SEARCH AND SEIZURES: THE FOURTH AMENDMENT: ITS CONSTITUTIONAL HISTORY AND CONTEMPORARY DEBATE (Cynthia Lee ed. 2010) (Prometheus Books).

- The Un-Balanced Fourth Amendment: A Cultural Study of the Drug War, Racial Profiling and Arvizu, 47 VILL. L. REV. 851 (2002) (applying cultural studies to connections between the drug war, Terry doctrine, and racial profiling).
- Understanding “Depolicing”: Symbiosis Theory and Critical Cultural Theory, 71 U.M.K.C. L. REV. 355 (2002) (identifying “depolicing” of racial minority communities and calling for synthesizing doctrinal, identity, and cultural studies methods into “critical cultural theory”).
 - Willard M. Oliver’s book, DEPOLICING-WHEN POLICE OFFICERS DISENGAGE (2019) credits this article with coining the phrase depolicing.
- Foreword: A New Journal of Color in a “Colorblind” World, 1 AFR.-AM. L. & POL’Y REPORT 1 (1995) (with Jerome M. Culp, Jr. & Lovita Tandy) (applauding race journal’s formation and critiquing colorblindness).
