

REGISTER TODAY

National conference on best practices, from accounting to taxes hosted by the William S. Boyd School of Law at UNLV

UNLV LAW

Gaming Law Conference

Regulating Land-Based Casinos

Sept. 3-5, 2014 | Las Vegas, Nevada

UNLV William S. Boyd School of Law

High-tech possibilities for online gaming grab headlines, but land-based casinos remain a vibrant, growing sector of the gaming industry. As the number of jurisdictions that legalize gambling grows, it is important to examine successful models and practices for developing and regulating land-based casinos.

Register for this three-day conference and join the latest discussion on land-based casinos led by gaming leaders in regulation, compliance, operations, and enforcement.

TOPICS

- The Debate Over Legal Gambling
- Gambling Policy and Goals
- Policy Implementation
- Structuring a Casino Industry
- Economic Impacts of Regulation
- Regulatory Agency Organization
- Politics of Gaming Regulation
- Addressing Problem Gambling
- Controlling Electronic/Computer Games and Equipment
- Auditing and Accounting
- Taxes
- Advantage Play, Crimes and Enforcement
- Licensing of Industry Participants
- Exclusions

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Lawyers
- Policy-makers
- Regulators
- Academics
- Gaming operators
- Gaming equipment suppliers
- Others interested in how the industry will develop nationally and internationally

REGISTRATION

- Early bird registration: $850 (payment must be received by Aug. 6, 2014)
- Regular registration: $900

For more information and to register, go to law.unlv.edu/GamingLawConference2014