

THE DANCE OF OPPOSITES

The Saltman Center for Conflict Resolution at the UNLV Boyd School of Law presents

Kenneth Cloke

Renowned mediator and Director of the Center for Dispute Resolution

Monday, March 3, 2014 | 12 p.m.
UNLV Boyd School of Law, Room 112

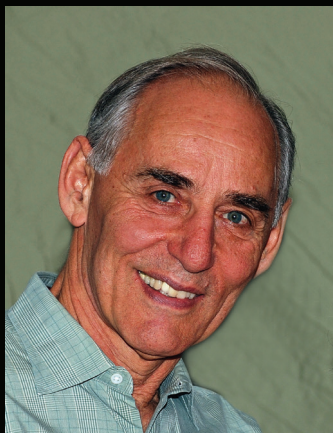

The Saltman Center for Conflict Resolution at the UNLV Boyd School of Law presents a talk by Kenneth Cloke on his new book, "The Dance of Opposites: Explorations in Mediation, Dialogue and Conflict Resolution Systems Design."

This program is pending approval for 1 CLE and 1 CEU credit (social workers and marriage family therapists).

This event is free and open to the public, but registration is required.

RSVP @ law.unlv.edu/Saltman2014KennethCloke

UNLV | WILLIAM S. BOYD
SCHOOL OF LAW

Kenneth Cloke, a renowned peacemaker, conflict manager and adjunct professor at Pepperdine University and Southern Methodist University, is Director of the Center for Dispute Resolution and the author of five previous books on conflict management and mediation, co-author with Joan Goldsmith on five additional books, and author of multiple journal articles. He has dedicated his life to peacemaking and teaching others to navigate conflict, serving as a mediator, arbitrator, attorney, coach, consultant, and trainer. He is the founder and first president of Mediators Beyond Borders.